

Exhibitors – World Blindness Summit

Ágora

The ÁGORA Program is a Professional Inclusion Program for blind and low-vision people, created by FOAL (ONCE Foundation for Solidarity with Blind People in Latin America).

Fernanda Bianchini Association

Founded in 1995, the Fernanda Bianchini Association pioneered the teaching of Classical Ballet for people with visual impairments, with its Blind Ballet Company recognized worldwide.

Campus Louis Braille

Campus Louis Braille is a startup incubator for blind people, focused on developing inclusive technological and educational solutions.

Dot Inc

Dot Inc is the creator of the Dot Pad X, the first tactile display that combines real-time graphics with multi-line braille, revolutionizing digital access for blind and low-vision people.

Dorina Nowill Foundation for the Blind

The Dorina Nowill Foundation for the Blind is a non-profit organization dedicated to the inclusion of people with visual impairments. It produces accessible books and materials in braille, audio, digital, and other formats.

Google

Google is a multinational technology company focused on internet-related services and products, including its popular search engine, online advertising, and cloud computing.

Handi Exceller

Handi Exceller develops inclusive and sustainable tools, combining accessible innovation with collective intelligence.

Index Braille

Index Braille has been a global leader in braille embossers since 1984, combining innovation, accessibility, and sustainability in inclusive solutions.

Laramara

Laramara is a non-profit civil society organization that promotes the integral development, autonomy, and social inclusion of people with visual impairments.

Madrassa An-Noor for the Blind

A non-profit educational institution that promotes inclusion by providing accessible Islamic resources and development programs for blind and visually impaired people.

Meta

Meta is a multinational technology and innovation company. Its main products include some of the world's most popular social media platforms and messaging apps, such as Facebook, Instagram, Threads, and WhatsApp, along with other products and services.

NaviLens

NaviLens develops accessible signage solutions that make cities and environments more inclusive for blind and low-vision people.

Nippon Telesoft

Nippon Telesoft Co., Ltd. develops innovative products and software for people with visual impairments, including high-quality braille embossers. The company combines advanced technology and functionality for schools and public institutions.

ONCB – National Organization of the Blind of Brazil

ONCB is an NGO that represents more than 100 entities and 7 million blind and low-vision people across Brazil, working nationwide to defend rights and promote inclusion.

SEDPcD – São Paulo State Secretariat for the Rights of Persons with Disabilities

The Secretariat articulates and implements public policies to ensure access to goods, products, and services for people with disabilities, in partnership with municipalities and other state departments.

SMPED – São Paulo Municipal Secretariat for Persons with Disabilities

SMPED develops public policies that promote inclusion, empowerment, and the rights of people with disabilities, strengthening support networks and accessibility in the city.

SNDPD – National Secretariat for the Rights of Persons with Disabilities

Part of the Ministry of Human Rights and Citizenship of Brazil, SNDPD is responsible for coordinating public policies and promoting the rights, inclusion, and dignity of people with disabilities.

Solar Grove

Solar Grove creates durable solar-powered devices that make essential information accessible to people who cannot read, working in education, health, and humanitarian aid.

3 Corações

3 Corações operates in the coffee sector, offering products and experiences that promote well-being, quality, and innovation. The company values entrepreneurship and sustainability, with a focus on developing the sector and its communities.